Venezuela Handbook (Footprint Handbooks)

Synopsis

Glittering emerald lagoons with dazzling white beaches and wild, untamed rainforest are joined by the Venezuelan llanos, home to luxurious ranches and exotic animals. Venezuela Handbook covers all the top attractions in this overwhelming country, plus lesser-known sights off the beaten track.

Customer Reviews

Footprint Focus travel guides are specially designed for the needs of today's travelers.

Venezuela provides you with all the information you need and none of the stuff that you don't. Insightful, in-depth and up-to-date information on this fascinating country. Gives the lowdown on the climbing Roraima and hiking Angel Falls. Extensive listings and expert advice on where to stay, where to eat and what to do.

Richard Arghiris first visited Latin America in 2003, when he travelled between the capitals of Mexico and Panama. Richard has since become a regular visitor to the Americas, writing and researching content for guidebooks, magazines, newspapers and websites. Richard has lived and worked in Amsterdam, Brighton, London and at sea. Aside from Latin America, he has travelled widely in Europe and the United States, and is currently based in London where he works as an author and freelance journalist and is on the road whenever it calls.
