My six-year old son laughed out loud when he read this very funny book. It had an interesting and amusing plot about a good King and his family, and some nasty bad knights out to cause trouble. The book also has the little fact boxes on some pages which contain information about coats of arms, suits of armor, etc. I think any 6 or 7 year-old child would love this book. It's the best Dorling Kindersley Level 2 book of all.

This book really helped our seven-year-old son who was struggling to enjoy reading as a first grader. He got excited about the pictures of Legos and decided to read this out loud. He memorized most of the difficult words and this helped build his confidence as reader.

I have two Lego fans in my house. This book with its level 3 rating is great for early readers. It is a "take to school for reading time" favorite.
