Katie was back living with her parents in Lancaster County trying to understand why God had allowed her husband and her son to die. Joseph and his family are suffering from the loss of his wife and mother of four children, who they also had lost. These families only start the many stories spanning over six books. These are Amish romance, suspense at its best. If you love the Amish stories you can't imagine what happens to the many characters here.

Cora, sweet Cora. Honorable intentions, never a dull moment in her life! Ruth Price I love the way you weave characters and life experiences. I didn't want to put this series down. Truly I laughed out loud, I cried with Mary, Cora and Fannie. I got frightened at appropriate times. Issac and Seth if I have sons I would want them to be a combination of the two of you. I will be re reading this series. But not till I catch up on what I neglected - like sleep! You are a God gifted writer Ruth Price and I am glad I love to read!

I loved this series. It was great from the first page till the last page. I really hated to see the series end. I would love to see more books added to this series. This is a Must read series. Ruth Price did an excellent job when writing this. I am looking forward to reading more of her books.

I've read several of Ruth Price's books. This has been the best so far. The characters are likeable and their personalities develop with each book. I looked forward to seeing the interactions between the Amish families. It was interesting to read about the differences in rumpspringa.

If you love a great read about the Amish----you will love this bundle of books----could not help but give five stars!!! This is a continuous story of the families, but you will truly enjoy the book----highly recommended clean book!!! I hope you enjoy as much as I did reading about the Amish!!!!

Anyone who enjoys Amish books will want to read this for sure. The author keeps your attention. It is very easy reading and I enjoyed it immensely.

I like the way Ruth Price depicts the interconnections of lives in a small community. Lives are deeply connected, esp. in small communities. This factor makes the story more believable. The 4 stars instead of 5 was due to some sleeping errors such as Fanny and Fannie used for the same person in almost sequential paragraphs.

I enjoyed these books. I found it very hard to take a break and have to confess to staying up way to late just to find out what was happening next. I found it especially refreshing to see the real side of people in relationships expressed. I would recommend these to my friends that likes stories about the Amish.
