Gardens Of The Alhambra

Synopsis

The Alhambra is one of the world's great gardens. This will be the first comprehensive book on the subject for over 90 years, and will not be superseded for many years to come. Lavishly illustrated with commissioned photography and previously unpublished archive material, the book is written by the world's leading experts including the director of the site, Maria del Mar Villafranca, and with contributions from architectural historian William Curtis and Alvaro Siza, the Pritzker prize-winning designer of a new garden at the Alhambra, which will be described here for the first time.
