Under Drake's Flag: A Tale Of The Spanish Main (Annotated)

Synopsis

The novel Under Drake's Flag depicts the struggle between Great Britain and Spain for supremacy of the high seas through the eyes of a sixteenth-century teenager, Ned Hearne. Along with his friends, young Ned has one adventure after another as he accompanies the daring English mariner Francis Drake on many voyages of discovery across the Pacific. Ned also witnessed the great naval battle between the English fleet and the Spanish Armada. This ebook edition also contains three other historical adventure stories, written by G.A. Henty: BEARS AND DACOITS ON THE TRACK, A FRONTIER GIRL

Customer Reviews

A wonderful read for all ages. Full of adventure of a young man who earns the respect of the English crown under the Banner of the great Sir Francis Drake whose adventures and daring are among the most brave.

A typical Henty boy's story about a smart, daring (and lucky) teenager who gets a chance to join Francis Drake on the Spanish Main, the voyage around the world and the war against the Spanish Armada. Lots of good historical background is mixed with improbably lucky exploits in the swashbuckling Elizabethan Age. I really enjoyed this.

Though a different style than modern novels, it was still an enjoyable journey into the past with the fiction nicely weaved with the history of the era.

More Henty, I really like this author

Good use of historical fiction.

What a wonderful and exciting book to teach the manly virtues to young people - as well as the history of important events. I also came to understand, for the first time, the reason for the clause at Article I, Section 8, clause 10, U.S. Constitution.

My grandson like this and his brothers read it to him.

Great historical fiction on Sir Francis Drake. My kids learned so much reading this book and really enjoyed it, too.
