Customer Reviews

Ignore the date above because I honestly don't know when I read these books. My brain has been branded by the Sheriff and my a$$ smacked by Brandt. Really this book is too hot to review. As soon as I write the words they evaporate right off the page. Brandt is the hot adopted uncle that you secretly pine for and in the safety of your bedroom you may slip a finger or two inside thinking about him. Wishing he would slip into your room and see you. Sheriff is the hot single dad that you shouldn't want. Your best friend's dad. Untouchable. Forbidden. That still doesn't stop you. These two novellas in one beautiful book will do things to you that should be outlawed. They will awaken places that you thought were asleep since you were in your twenties. When I said these books were hot, I meant it. They are word porn. K. Webster's Word Porn that is and you won't be able to forget what you read in between these pages!

OMG, I loved this. I have quite a few books by this author on my kindle but I confess this was the first one I've read of K. Webster's. It's everything she warns of. Taboo topic, insta love but the stories were still great. Brandt is the hot best friend I wish my father had had, when I was in my teens. Kelsey has had a thing for her father's friend for several years despite the fact she's only 17 years old. When Brandt shows an interest in her, things get oh so hot. Three decades age difference might have some gasping in shock. I just think, love knows no boundaries. Then Kelsey's best friend Mandy reveals in the second novella in this book that she's had a thing for Kelsey's father, Rick, who is also the sheriff. After going to his home for protection from her violent father, things heat up. Great read. Hot and sexy, but yeah, if you're not into books with a big age difference between the characters, then maybe not for you. I loved it though.

I'm a little bit of a novella queen. I read one after every book I finish as a palate cleanser, if you will. My point is that I know my novellas and these 2 interconnected shorts are on my top 5 list. They are short. They are dirty. They are taboo. They are hot. But what makes K Webster's novellas stand out amongst the crowd is that there is a story there. It's not a bunch of fluff material, there are meat on these bones and I loved every word. I am going on record to say that there is nothing Kristi can't write, and write well. I love her dark and deprave books but I love her lighter and sexier side as well.

So, this is not my usual story line. I bought this story and then let it sit in my library. I was unsure about it and decided to read it at a later date. I got tired of so many similar stories that I went searching my library for something new and interesting. Let me tell you this is it! I LOVED this story. It is fast fun read. I could not put it down. It was PERFECT! There is nothing that I would change about it, it left me completely satisfied and wanting more. It is going in my favorites file and I am declaring it my favorite book of the year! I could not choose between Brandt or Rick, though I would not say no to both. I loved that this was two short stories that blend together to make a wonderful story. I look forward to more in the future. If you are on the fence, take a chance it is worth it!

OMG if you are looking for some dirty, naughty, forbidden, taboo, sexy and sinful stories look no further. K Webster takes a twist on girls with daddy issues and turns it upside down. These two saucy interconnected stories of bad girls doing things with even badder men made me breathless and in need of some new panties! Not for the faint of heart! Grab this naughty deliciousness and some extra batteries!!

I was lucky enough to be able to read this book before it was a book. This is completely and utterly out of this world!! Beautifully put together by K. Webster and you won't be disappointed. In Brandt's Cherry, Brandt falls for Kelsey his best friend's daughter and in Sheriff's Bad Girl Kelsey's dad the Sheriff falls for Kelsey's best friend Mandy. Wow, these two stories are so hot you will need something to cool you off when you are done. This book is full of naughty innuendoes, steamy sex, and total taboo love. K. Webster never disappoints and this one is no exception. All I can say is you have to read it for yourselves.

There goes my vanilla eyes. Ms. Webster is so EVIL. Like I don't know where to begin. The beginning was by far so good. I was into best friend and daughters. Gosh!!!! I am so missing out. Like I thought vanilla reading was good. However this was evil, dark and twisted SUPER HOT SEXY GOOD. Anyway enough my typing. Ladies and guys, get Ms. Webster's books. It is beyond outside of the box. So long Mr. Grey. Hello handcuffs #sorrynospoilersfromme #hotbook #sexybook #lovingthebookcover

This book is taboo for sure! Older male/younger female, if that bothers you I recommend not reading! This is my first book by K Webster and I went into this knowing what to expect but not having high expectations. I was happily surprised! It's not a long story, two interconnecting stories both of which will suck you in! I couldn't stop reading!! The scenes are super steamy! All in all it was a good book! I would recommend.
