The Science Timeline Wallbook: Unfold The Story Of Inventions— from The Stone Age To The Present Day!

Synopsis

SEE HOW people have changed the world with their hands and brains for over more than 10,000 years from the Stone Ages to the present day. Created in association with the American Museum of Natural History This unique history of science and engineering includes a 6-foot fold-out timeline containing more than 1,000 pictures and captions that tell the story of the world's greatest scientists and inventors from ancient China to the Middle East, and from Enlightenment Europe to modern America. The Science Timeline Wallbook also includes an easy-to-read chronicle that reports on more than forty seminal moments from the timeline in the style of a newspaper. Other features include a page of letters to the editor, a fifty-question quiz, and pocket magnifier. Perfect for 6-14 year olds but equally fascinating for all curious adults too.

Customer Reviews

"Children LOVE the What on Earth? series in a fun, informative and visually appealing way. These books deliver on many levels and I couldn't be more impressed. Never mind the children I'd like the whole series for myself!" (www.pocketfulofrye.co.uk)"Epic - this is history let out of a box" (Daily Telegraph)"It simply sings to info-philes and visual learners alike. With parallel timelines for all continents, developments on land, sky and sea, more than a thousand illustrations, it is a superlative mastery of design and research, a treat to eye and brain alike. - Lucy H Pearce, Book Reviewer for (JUNO)

Christopher Lloyd graduated with a double-first class degree in history from Cambridge University. Christopher became Technology Editor with The Sunday Times newspaper in London and is now a best-selling author of more than 15 books on world history including What on Earth Happened? The Complete Story of the Planet, Life and People from the Big Bang to the Present Day (Bloomsbury) and the series of What on Earth? Timelines. He is in great demand as a lecturer and public speaker throughout the world at conferences, educational seminars, museums, festivals and schools. Andy Forshaw graduated with a BA in graphic design and illustration from London's Central St. Martins College. In 2010, Andy and Christopher teamed up to found What on Earth Publishing with a view to establishing new ways of making big history accessible to all ages. Andy has since individually created more than 5,000 illustrations that are featured in the range of What on Earth? timelines. When not illustrating, Andy can be found exploring the countryside on his bike.
