An American Girl In London: 120 Nourishing Recipes For Your Family From A Californian Expat

Synopsis

Ladies of London star Marissa Hermer grew up in southern California picking avocados from her grandmother's tree. Weekends meant trips to the Newport Beach pier for fresh fish and bowls of granola baked in the sunny family kitchen. But everything changed when Marissa moved to London to be with the love of her life, a British restaurateur who prefers meat and potatoes to guacamole. A classic Sunday roast replaced her beachside BBQ, and sticky toffee pudding elbowed out the s'mores. But as she made her home in England and started a family of her own, Marissa didn't want to lose her roots. She began incorporating a bit of California into her recipes, creating homey British favorites with a brighter twist. Drawing inspiration from both her American upbringing and British cuisine, the 120 recipes in An American Girl in London show you how to cook delicious, nourishing, family-friendly fare that earns raves on both sides of the pond. From a flavorful sourdough bread and butter pudding to a rich mushroom and tarragon pie, Marissa shows you how to amp up the flavors of home to keep you, your family, and friends feeling fit, loved, and completely nourished. While her home kitchen might not be the most traditional, it's a match made in transatlantic heaven.

Marissa Hermer owns Bumpkin restaurants in London and is the star of Bravo's Ladies of London. She lives in London with her husband and children.

I was waiting and waiting for this cookbook to come out ... so worth the wait. From the gorgeous deep wedgwood blue endpapers to the glorious photography, Marissa's book combines down-to-earth recipes with plenty of family photographs. Each chapter is just what you'd want in a cookbook, with breakfasts, party ideas, plenty of luscious sides, tea party food and puddings (desserts). Not only do I love it, I'm deciding who needs to get a copy as a gift. Ummm - everyone!

Great job Marissa! Simple yet unique healthier slant recipes with lovely photo's that will inspire one to cook it up! Enjoy you on Bravo London. You are a terrific example for true California lady thank you!! I am from Dana Point/Laguna myself & knowing that most of the cast of Orange County Housewives are NOT from Orange County is disingenuous! That said, your refreshing and can't wait for the weather to cool down here in Southern California because I have my eye's on the Mum's Lasagna along with an Arugula Romaine salad Yum!

I absolutely love this book . Super good and healthy recipes and easy to make . Love love love would give it 10 stars but you can only give 5 ...

A beautifully written and laid out cookbook with wonderful wholesome and nutritious recipes. There is something for everyone no matter where you live. There is a balance of healthy and indulgent foods to make even the pickiest of eaters happy. I am excited to try the recipes.

I had been anxiously awaiting this book so when I got it yesterday I immediately stopped what I was doing to peruse it! It did not disappoint! I love the mixture of both American and British recipes mixed in. There are so many recipes I'd never heard of and can't wait to try!

Love the recipes and pictures. Although I bought the digital version on a whim, the hardcover is so nice I have to have it.

The cookbook is beautiful and the recipes look wonderful. I made the banana date muffins as a bread and my family thought I bought it at a fancy local bakery. I'm going to try the pancakes this weekend.

Marissa hit a home run- from kid friendly, meatless, weeknight, weekend, and holiday- there is something for everyone.
