For the serious Christian studF

Good book.

Dr. McGrath is one of the great apologists for the Christian faith. This quick, but deep read demonstrates both intellectual clarity as well as integrity to the faith. McGrath makes the history of the faith foundational to a successful relationship with Christianity.

This book is a quick read through some of the great Christian thinkers. Each chapter contains a concise history of each thinker with a helpful bibliography at the end. I found the chapters on Anselm, Zwingli, and Aquinas helpful in clarifying their significance in history, their relationship to modern theology, and their impact on their world. This is an excellent book for the layman, church library, or gift.
