Customer Reviews

Shipping was quick, and the book arrived in the condition stated in the product description. So now that we've gotten the particulars out of the way... on to the good stuff: I just love this daily devotional book! As a leader of a nonprofit organization, I am able to read through the entries and apply what John Maxwell has so masterfully worded, to leading my Board of Directors and to my everyday life. This book has helped me to grow and become a better leader. Since I made this purchase, I have ordered many more copies of this book and given it as gifts to those who I know would benefit from it, as well as enjoy it.

This book was given as a gift for a co-worker who completed a regional leadership and volunteer program. It is done to look like a fancy leather bound book and was perfect for a congratulatory personal note to be written in the front cover. The person who received this was absolutely thrilled with it. She reads the daily affirmations and displays it proudly on her desk.

I bought a copy of this book many years ago during a time in my previous marriage when I was receiving conflicting, but well intended advice. At that time, I needed to spend time learning God's ideal of a person of integrity. What I ended up with was a wonderful devotional that changed how I parent, how I work for my employer, how I mentor young adults. No other business leadership manuscript impacted my growth as this small book. I purchase it often as gifts for graduation and other milestone events. I handed my scribbled and notated book over to my daughter when she left for college...it is now one of her favorites.

I bought this book as I was developing a Management Program. I must say I had no regrets. The use of different passages of the Bible and the explanation given was really great. I think I will purchase a few for my colleagues and supervisor.

I found this book in a Christian bookstore over 10 years ago. I've traveled the world with this book and have used it when applying leadership techniques in the military. I've also given this book to numerous proteges and family. I often read when in my car before I get out and walk to work. Great read to start the day and by far my favorite book as I've read it several times.

Encouraging, thought provoking, encourages prayer and personal leadership development. Bought copies for our church's leadership team. A must have for all Christ-followers.
