Devlin (Were Zoo Book 5)

Synopsis

Lion shifter Jenni Brisban, is beginning to think that the VIP tours hosted by the Amazing Adventures Safari Park aren't going to help her find her soulmate. Hardly any human males come on the tour, and she spends her weekends in her shift, feeling like her life is passing before her eyes. When she's offered a job in the new sweets shop at the park, she decides taking a break from the tour isn't a bad idea. Standing behind the counter, talking to customers, and sneaking candy made by the resident baker, Lexy, is just what Jenni needs to get her mind off her singleness. Human Devlin Potter is poised to get a promotion at work that will change his life dramatically. Finally, all his hard work will be worth it. The job he wants is just within reach, and his five-year plan is right on track. But when he sees a beautiful blonde woman at his cousin's sweets shop, everything he ever thought he wanted disappears in a hot flash. Now, he only wants Jenni. Nothing is hotter to Devlin than being with Jenni, but he can tell she's holding something back. When he comes to the zoo to see her, but finds himself at the lion paddock, staring into a lioness's eyes that are the same pretty gold as Jenni's, he knows exactly what her secret is, even though it seems impossible. Devlin has a choice to make: give up everything to live with Jenni at the zoo, or walk away forever. She can't live in his world, but can he live in hers?
