Customer Reviews

The New York Times said of her gardening memoir, We Made a Garden, "a gentle reminder that plants are only a small part of what a garden is. The good ones are autobiographies written in green."

The late Margery Fish is one of England's most beloved gardening writers. She is the author of numerous gardening classics, including "Carefree Gardening," "Cottage Garden Flowers," and "We Made a Garden." Her books remains as relevant to gardeners today as they were when they were first published in the 1950s and 1960s.

not a very exciting book but quite informative for anyone who gardens in the shade.
