I think the five stars will be indicative of how this story goes!! THIS was a masterpiece as far as I'm concerned!! The smooth flow of life altering event to the next was inexplicable. THIS story was definitely what real life is made of. The Christian Urban genre is for sure one of my favorites but this author seriously wrote this true to life story!! The editing was professionally done as is not always the case with Christian Urban fiction. The characters were lovable and also hate worthy, and were real enough to carry to a series easily. I will be following the work of this author in the future.

Excellent read!! Period.

Soul Cry was a perfect story. The entire time I was hoping that Jalen died or something, lolThe story line and plot was simply amazing. With hint of generational curse from her mom straight to her. That dog of a husband got just what he deserve. And I'm so happy that Jamaika got the man she prayed for and her babies.

Soul cry is a must-read it is true testimony of love understanding and surrender to the word of God and to come out Victorious.

Good book. I really enjoyed it. The end was awesome and the book three me for a loop when I found out who started the whole mess.

Awesome story. It kept me interested throughout the book.I recommend others read this book. It helped me with my thoughts on suicide.

This was a really good read, I enjoyed this book it was well written and great for my long bus rides. I love me some christian fiction and this one did not disappoint.

Great book as always

I am so happy Jamaika and Levi listened to God and then their heart. They had so much in common. What great love they had. Levi was indeed the man for Jamaika. I enjoyed this book.
