I was disappointed in the journal cos it was paperback, and not hardback, and also, no pix within the pages to "pretty" it up. But I had to give it a 4 star rating due to it having part of the proceeds going to a Feline Leukemia Rescue Non-Profit somewhere, and I'm passionate about those poor animals with a terminal disease. The journal was a bit overpriced, but I was ok with that for the sake of the sick kitties, and their convelescing. It was for a good cause.

I love this notebook. I needed a notebook for a class I'm taking. This notebook is perfect for my needs. First of all it has an adorable cat on the front. As a cat lover I couldn't resist buying this notebook. Second, it's just the right size. There are 100 pages to this notebook. That's plenty of pages for my needs. I like the idea that the notebook is portable . It easily fits in my purse without weighing it down. My class materials are readily available whenever I need to reference them. I don't need a tote bag. I also like the fact that part of the proceeds from this notebook goes to an organization that cares for cats that have feline leukemia. This is quite a deal . You get a great notebook and also support a wonderful cause.
