"Don't Forget To Sing In The Lifeboats": Uncommon Wisdom For Uncommon Times

Synopsis

Uncommon times call for uncommon wisdom. It's inspiring to hear from people who've graduated from the school of hard knocks, yet kept a sense of humor. People like Twain, Voltaire, Oscar Wilde. People who've said the thing so well that we all wish we'd said it. People who've been there, done that, and refuse to sugarcoat what they've learned. People who know, as Sherry Hochman puts it, that "Every day is a gift—even if it sucks." From Kathryn and Ross Petras, curators of craziness (and surprising smarts), comes a timely collection of reassuring reality: "Why is there so much month left at the end of the money?"—John Barrymore "October. This is one of the peculiarly dangerous months to speculate in stocks in. The others are July, January, September, April, November, May, March, June, December, August, and February."—Mark Twain "I know God will not give me anything I can't handle. I just wish he didn't trust me so much."—Mother Teresa "When one burns one's bridges, what a very nice fire it makes."—Dylan Thomas "If you think you have it tough, read history books."—Bill Maher And Voltaire: "Life is a shipwreck but we must not forget to sing in the lifeboats."

"Why is there so much month left at the end of the money?"---John Barrymore "October. This is one of the peculiarly dangerous months to speculate in stocks. The others are July, January, September, April, November, May, March, June, December, August, and February." Mark Twain "I know God will not give me anything I can't handle. I just wish he didn't trust me so much"---Mother Teresa "When one burns one's bridges, what a very nice fire it makes." Dylan Thomas And Voltaire:

"Life is a shipwreck but we must not forget to sing in the lifeboats."

"The first rule of holes: when you're in one, stop digging." •Molly Ivins, Writer
"Some days you're a bug. Some days you're a windshield." •Price Cobb, Race Car Driver
"In times like these it is good to remember there have always been times like these." •Paul Harvey, Radio Broadcaster
When life hands you lemons, it's inspiring to hear from people who've made (and drunk) the lemonade. People who've been there, done that, and lived to tell the tale. Who've graduated from the school of hard knocks and never lost their sense of humor. People like Mark Twain, Warren Buffett, Marlene Dietrich, Natalie Goldberg, Amarillo Slim, Fran Lebowitz, Michael Jordan. People who know, as the writer Sherry Hochman puts it, that "Every day is a gift •even if it sucks."

Love this book this is one of my go to books for a cute little gift! Love the sayings

I laughed when I read the whole quote and agree with it!! So I bought the book! I enjoyed the quotes and can certainly use a few of them. I collect quotes so this little book will come in handy for any talks that I will be giving. The book IS small and there is only one quote per page, but they are not quotes I have heard before so I am very pleased with it.

fun "spare time" reading. Thanks.

I bought this book for my adult daughter's birthday because I liked the range of quotations and thoughtfulness of the selection. It's easy to pick up any time you need to be comforted or inspired.

I love this little book. I keep it on my coffee table and read excerpts when I am looking for a little motivation. I bought this one for my friend to bring a smile and inspiration while she is going through rough times. Great collection.

This is another one of those short, fun books that you can pick up and flip through when you need a smile or just a little encouragement about life's situations. I keep it on my coffee table.

Good words to live by without being preachy - you know what I mean. Some humor to get through the day sometimes. Something to read while waiting at the doctors office. Something to lift your mood and to find encouragement.

I enjoy books of quotations and this one was especially good.
