Customer Reviews

Thank you Sarah for such an amazing book! It's great to have all of your tips and training in one place. This is my "go to" whenever I need inspiration, ideas and motivation. My favorite tips include ways to reach out to people and scripting. I am expanding my business every week and it wouldn't be possible without your book and continuous training. I will be gifting your book to my team as it grows!

I have been in higher education for over 20 years as a University administrator and became very ill and was forced to change my career. I began working at the very same organization as the author of the book and knew very little about her when I made the purchase. I not only was mesmerized with every page, but I couldn't put the book down until I read the entire thing. Sarah Robbins is not just an elementary teacher, but a woman of great wisdom far beyond her age. Her tenacious desire to help others grow, regardless of the company they choose, speaks volumes about who she is. I would recommend this book to EVERY individual starting out in a MLM/direct sales company. It provides the foundation and knowledge from a leader who not only reached the top, but did so with much grace and class. You will also find snippets of knowledge that Sarah has learned from other publications and freely share with you. A++ in my book and proud to have made a purchase from not only a beautifully talented woman, but from a woman of faith and integrity. Christi Hays

This book was extremely helpful for me when I was involved in a network marketing company. If you put the information into practice you can be successful, but passion and dedication are required.

What makes this book so relevant is that Sarah Robbins gives practical guidance in navigating the network marketing waters. She offers simple, non-gimicky ways to begin the conversation, ultimately leading to discussion of your business. This book is a toolbox, providing ways to break through your own personal roadblocks by teaching you how to engage individuals while remaining authentic to who you are. She does NOT promise what so many others seem to: that there is a magic pill to success. Rather, she lays basic down basic networking strategies to generate more leads in your cold market by simply being friendly and engaging--something we all could benefit from in all facets of our lives anyway. Overall, I found this book more useful than anything I've yet to read!

Thought this book would be more informative or have tips or suggestions not obvious to already known steps to follow.

I've read through and am starting it again. A lot of this information I knew already as I've been in network marketing before. But this helps keep me motivated!

Thinking of taking the leap into becoming an entrepreneur? This book is a MUST HAVE! I was contemplating the idea of joining a network marketing business so I began reading Sarah's book. She provides practical, real life training that can be applied immediately. I made the decision to build my own business, announced my enthusiasm, posted my goals and put Sarah's words into action. After beginning my business three months ago, I am now leading a team. Thank you Sarah for sharing your experiences & your heart! I continue to reread this book daily- it inspires and encourages oneself to keep growing. Now I'm attending "school" with Sarah through her CD training set. ROCK your network marketing business with Sarah and she'll have you feeling and working like a Rockstar!

This book was recommended and I'm so glad I read this! Great tips and practices that can be applied in various areas of network marketing! As I plan to enter the network marketing arena in the next month, I will be recommending this book to those I recruit. Thank you for offering such great insight! I look forward to checking out other tools and information on Sarah's web site.
