AIA Guide To The Minneapolis Lake District

Synopsis

Let architecture critic Larry Millett be your guide to some of the most picturesque areas in the Twin Cities, a treasure trove of architectural styles and storied homes. This guidebook will satisfy your cravings for details about the structures and the people who built them. AIA Guide to the Minneapolis Lake District includes walking tours of Lake Harriet, Lake Calhoun and Uptown, Lowry Hill, and Lake of the Isles. Each tour is copiously illustrated with current and historic photographs and paired with a detailed map. This deeply informative guidebook is perfect for tourists discovering the Twin Cities or residents exploring what is right next door.

Customer Reviews

This is a great little book devoted to the architecture around the western lakes of Minneapolis. The photos are small, but perfectly acceptable to identify the buildings. Good walking tour suggestions. I'd highly recommend it to either the Minneapolis visitor or long-term resident. There's a lot of information in this thin book.
