Customer Reviews

Kindergarten-Grade 2 "These titles are visually inviting and well written, with a limited word count that doesn't shortchange readers on vocabulary. DeGezelle offers an appealing look at snowboarding. This text consists of a mere 90 well-chosen words. Ice-Skate! introduces readers to the joy of skating, both indoors and out. However, the Web sites listed are about all winter sports, and they are not geared toward the intended audience. Both books offer full-color, full-page action shots of youngsters engaged in the sports described. These titles are more appealing than Edana Eckart's books on the same sports (Children's Press) and are for a younger audience than the Action Sports series (Chelsea House)."
